

Day Out in England

The BIG England Food Quiz – 50 Questions
<https://dayoutinengland.com/england-food-quiz>

Round 1: English breakfast quiz

1. What does the HP stand for in HP sauce? Houses of Parliament
2. Which breakfast item is proudly made in Burton on Trent? Marmite
3. 'Like Tea used to be' refers to which tea? Yorkshire Tea
4. What's the official difference between an English breakfast, and a Scottish one?
Black pudding vs haggis or hash browns vs oat cakes
5. What is a smoked herring also known as? Kippers
6. What type of animal forms the basis of a kedgerree, be precise? Haddock
7. What type of beans are baked beans? Haricot beans
8. What caused the holes in crumpets? Bubbles in fermentation
9. When it comes to breakfast, what are soldiers? Sliced toast
10. Which is healthier, a croissant or an English muffin? English muffin

Round 2: Lunch in England quiz – what am I?

1. I'm stuffed with beef, turnips, potatoes and onions, and was first served in south England, what am I? Cornish pasty
2. I'm found in Devon and people often argue about which is spread on me first, what am I? Scone
3. I was invented so John Montagu wouldn't get both his hands and cards dirty during a gambling game, what am I? Sandwich, 4th Earl of Sandwich, John Montagu.
4. I have a thin layer of fat, and am kinda a big deal in Melton Mowbray, what am I?
Pork pie
5. I'm a bit like a pasty, but I have a savoury filling at one end, and sweet at the other, what am I? Bedfordshire Clanger pastry
6. I'm a delicacy, found in Colchester, and the Romans loved me, what am I? Oysters
7. I famously appeared on Wallace and Gromit, what am I? Wensleydale cheese
8. I'm made from bread, cheese, beer and pickles, and served as a lunch, what am I?
Ploughman's Lunch
9. Fortnum and Mason claim to have invented me in 1738, I'm round, I divide the nation, what am I? Scotch egg
10. I'm known as a staple in the English diet, to anyone who doesn't live in England. They think we eat them while drinking afternoon tea out of a teacup. In reality, we don't, what am I? Cucumber sandwiches

Round 3: Chocolate in England – picture round

How many of these chocolate bars can you name?

1. Flake
2. Milky Way
3. KitKat
4. Twix
5. Wispa
6. Snickers
7. Mars Bar
8. Double Decker
9. Crunchie

Round 4: English Dinner quiz

1. What meat is used in a Shepherds Pie? Lamb
2. Which day do English people traditionally eat fish and chips? Friday
3. What is beef wrapped in pate and pastry, and usually served with potatoes and veg called? Beef wellington
4. Do you use yeast in Yorkshire Pudding? No
5. I'm made of potatoes and cabbage, and usually made from leftovers, what am I? Bubble and squeak
6. Which vegetable was first known as 'Italian asparagus'? Broccoli
7. What does BISTO stand for? Browns Instantly, Seasons and Thickers in One
8. Which county is most famed for its hotpot? Lancashire
9. What is a panackelty? A casserole dish consisting of corned beef and root vegetables slow baked over a low heat.
10. What type of food does the UK spend £4.7 BILLION on a year? Ready meals

Round 5: English Dessert Quiz

1. What's it called when you put meringue with cream and strawberries and coulis? Eton Mess
2. Which has more calories in a full standard packet, Viennetta or Arctic Roll? Vienetta – 834 vs 550
3. You can buy lemon Angel Delight, true or false? False
4. 'Colin' is synonymous with which supermarket? M&S
5. Battenberg cake is traditionally which two colours? Yellow and pink
6. Name five ingredients in trifle? Sponge cake or fingers, cream, fruit, sherry, strawberries, custard
7. I sound like an STI, what am I? Spotted dick
8. What is an eccles cake made of? Sticky and packed with fruit, with extra flaky and light pastry
9. What's the English word for when you have loads of ice cream, fruit and sauce in a tall glass? Knickerbocker Glory
10. I have bananas, cream, and toffee made from boiled condensed milk – what am I?

50. Bonus question

Bonus question, if you choose to accept it, you have 60 seconds – set the timer...

How many things can you cook with a sausage? GO!

Toad in the hole, sausage casserole, sausage roll, pigs in blanket, sausage stew, sausage sandwich, sausage meatballs, hot dogs... etc! You know if it's right!

Either give the 50th point to whoever gets the most, or get a point for every meal – up to you!

<https://dayoutinengland.com/england-food-quiz>

Day Out in England

